With panoramic views of Sapporo, an inviting open-air hot spring, and outstanding traditional cuisine, Sapporo Prince Hotel makes the perfect base for your exploration of Hokkaido's capital city. If you can, time your stay to coincide with the city's celebrated "yuki matsuri," the Sapporo Snow Festival.

Founded in 1950, the Sapporo Snow Festival has grown with the years, and now attracts some two million visitors to its weeklong display of fantastic snow and ice sculptures. Every year, the event is held in February. The main festival site is at downtown Sapporo's Odori Park, featuring snow and ice sculptures and entertainment. The Tsudome site includes snow slides and mazes. And the Susukino site hosts a popular sculpture display and competition.

Sapporo defines "winter wonderland," and you'll enjoy the best of it at Sapporo Prince Hotel.
