Happy New Year from Prince Hotels & Resorts

We look forward to sharing more news and exclusive PCI member opportunities with you throughout this new year. One great example is our new online booking service featuring instant confirmation. Now it's quicker and easier than ever to book the best of Japan.

Sanyo-so and Ryuguden, Two Classics of Traditional Japan

Sanyo-so is a charming guesthouse in the spa town of Nagaoka on the Izu Peninsula, southwest of Tokyo. Originally built as a vacation home, the main structure features beautifully preserved Japanese architecture and an expansive garden known for its glorious cherry blossoms (in April) and iris (in May). The property also boasts a teahouse and indoor and outdoor "onsen" (hot spring baths).

Beds are available in some rooms, but most feature "tatami" (straw mat) floors. In the finest Japanese style, meals are served in your room and comprise 15-16 dishes celebrating seasonal ingredients and fresh seafood.

PCI member rates start at ¥37,000 (per person).

Facing the shores of Lake Ashi in Hakone, Ryuguden is recognized as one of the finest examples of the traditional Japanese hotel. Its architecture was inspired by Byodo-in, the famous Buddhist temple in Kyoto, and its "kaiseki" (formal banquet) cuisine is legendary. Be sure to try the signature homemade tofu made with the pure waters of nearby Mt. Fuji.

With gorgeous lake and Mt. Fuji views from the guest rooms and relaxing on-site "onsen" (hot spring baths), Ryuguden sets the stage for an unforgettably Japanese experience.

PCI member rates start at ¥23,700 (per person).

Take in Tokyo at Sunshine City Prince Hotel

Sunshine City Prince Hotel rises high above the lively district of Ikebukuro – so high, in fact, that the views from the newly designated "Panorama Floors" seem to go on forever. These are vistas that give you a true appreciation of just how large Tokyo is, and on clear days the view extends all the way to Mt. Fuji.

Remodeled rooms feature incredibly comfortable Simmons beds, Royal Blend and organic coffee, and upscale bathroom amenities. Select rooms offer high-speed "plug and play" Internet access with VPN and advanced security for ¥1,050 per night; this allows you to connect safely to your own company's network. The hotel's Newspaper Direct service can also print out any of 730 newspapers from 73 countries.

PCI member rates for Panorama Floor rooms start at ¥11,550 (per person).
